

FedArb™ (Federal Arbitration, Inc.) is an ADR company that specializes in arbitration and mediation services for complex commercial cases.

What makes us different?

- FedArb’s ADR service was established to combine the benefits of the federal court system (experienced judges, familiar rules and optional appeal) while preserving all the benefits of arbitration (judge selection, speed, confidentiality, cost efficiency, customization, and enforceability).
- A roster of 50 former federal judges who are experts in various areas of law
- Rules familiar to most litigators and based on Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP) the Federal Rules of Evidence (FRE) and the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure (FRAP) subject to modification by agreement of the parties.
- Proprietary case management software provides customized case status reports, and Case Managers are available to assist all parties 7 days a week with extended morning and evening hours.

Arbitration

Testimonials

Hon. Charles B. Renfrew (United States District Judge Northern District of California from 1972 to 1980)

“I have found FedArb to be at the forefront of organizations that provide administered dispute resolutions. . . . The panel members of FedArb are among the ablest of the mediators and arbitrators with whom I have dealt. My experiences with FedArb have all been positive. I wholeheartedly endorse and recommend it to anyone who is looking for a well-organized, efficient, timely administration of dispute resolution matters.”

Hon. John S. Martin (United States District Judge Southern District of New York from 1990 until 2003)

“FedArb offers parties all of the benefits of a federal nonjury trial with the additional benefit that you can select your judge from a panel of distinguished former judges who commit to providing a prompt decision.”

Hon. David Folsom (United States District Judge Eastern District of Texas from 1995 until 2012)

“Soon after taking full retirement in March 2012, I joined the FedArb roster of federal judges at the suggestion of another member of the group and have been very pleased with my decision. FedArb’s professionalism, administrative services and management team are very impressive. A party seeking the mediation and arbitration of complex civil cases should give FedArb strong consideration.”
